Co-Ed Soccer Coach Position Available

If you love working with high school athletes, if you are patient, humble, diligent, hardworking and kind, if you come home feeling energized and fulfilled after working with young adults, we want to talk with you. The Co-Ed Soccer Coach will be part of a coaching team and must be a team player. We are a private Christian school where Christ comes first in athletics for students.

The Co-Ed Soccer Coach will run practices with ten to fifteen students from 12 to 18 years old. They will learn the fundamentals of the games with a focus on character development. Players will master dribbling, passing, shooting and basic team plays.

The Co-Ed Soccer Coach will be responsible for the training and conditioning of the players, conducting 4 practices a week, overseeing 8 regular season games and two playoff games, signing out equipment at the beginning of the season and returning equipment at the end of the season. The soccer season begins mid-August and runs until the early November. The coach will also organize rides for the away games and facilitate a post season banquet with the players and their families.

Faculty at ACA enjoy the benefit of low student to teacher ratio and a healthy Christian atmosphere. There will be a stipend awarded for this coaching position. Additional details will be provided at the interview.

Amherst Christian Academy (ACA), a ministry of Creekside Assembly of God, is a community of staff, students and their families committed to pursuing excellence in academics and character through a Christ-centered, research-based, affordable, education. We strive to disciple the complete student in authentic faith and love who will influence the world for Christ.

While it is advisable the Co-Ed Soccer Coach have a coach's certification it is not required, but experience is highly valued. Interested applicants may send a cover letter to principal@aca.academy. The cover letter should be addressed to Michael Caban. This job posting will remain up until the position is filled.
